U.S. Marine Corps Forces Special Operations Command

Carol G. Bayne
Safety Officer, MARFORSOC

The overall classification of this briefing is:

UNCLASSIFIED//FOUO

MARFORSOC's Mission

Recruit, organize, train, equip, educate, sustain, maintain combat readiness and provide task organized, scaleable and responsive Marine Corps Special Operations Forces (MARSOF) worldwide to accomplish Special Operations (SO) missions assigned by CDRUSSOCOM, and /or Geographic Combatant Commanders (GCC) employing SOF.

MARSOC Core Activities

- Foreign Internal Defense (FID)
- Counterinsurgency (COIN)
- Direct Action (DA)
- Special Reconnaissance (SR)
- Counterterrorism (CT)
- Support Information Operations (IO)

Updates

- Logistical Readiness Evaluations
- Force Preservation Councils
- WPSR
- WESS
- 25th EFPB Topic for Discussion

Mission Statement

The mission of the MARSOC's Safety Department is to reduce the number and severity of mishaps through continuous leadership from the command level, competent safety minded supervision, and individual cooperation in mishaps prevention

MARSOC

ALWAYS FAITHFUL…

ALWAYS FORWARD…

SILENT WARRIORS.